Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good," and Doctor Pierce's medicine will exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrap—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for women's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve, it is unequalled. It doesn't satisfy those who want "boon" for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still maintain their position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve, it is unequalled. It doesn't satisfy those who want "boon" for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

AUCTION SALE.

By Samuel H. Hunt, Auctioneer.

A ADMINISTRATOR, WITH THE WILL annexed, of Owen Donnelly, deceased, the undersigned will at 12 o'clock in the afternoon, SATURDAY, 7TH DAY OF JUNE, 1908, in front of the Royal street entrance to the Market Building, in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, sell at public auction the store and dwelling house No. 117 Prince street, being the following described real estate situated in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, viz: Beginning on the north side of Prince street 168 feet westward of Union street and running west with Prince street 20 feet 10 1/2 inches; thence north parallel with Union street 88 feet 3 1/2 inches; thence easterly parallel with Prince street 20 feet 10 1/2 inches; thence by a straight line to the beginning.

Also a piece of ground adjoining the above described piece, and bounded as follows: Beginning on the south side of Wales Alley 121 feet 1 1/2 inches eastward of Lee street and running thence easterly with said alley and parallel with Prince street 4 feet; thence southerly parallel with Lee street 39 feet 7 1/2 inches to the north line of the above described lot; thence easterly with said north line 4 feet; thence by a straight line to the place of beginning, with the use of said alley.

Terms of sale: Cash. Conveyance at the cost of the purchaser.

WALTER C. BALDERSTON, Administrator of the will of Owen Donnelly, deceased.

CLERGYMEN CHANGE FAITH.

Dr. William McGarvey and six other former Protestant Episcopal clergymen were received into the Catholic Church by Archbishop Ryan in the Cathedral Chapel in Philadelphia yesterday. The whole history of the Oxford movement, which led Cardinal Newman and many other distinguished men into the Catholic Church, it is said there is no record of seven clergymen taking that step in a body, and together making the required profession of faith.

The six who knelt with Dr. McGarvey at Archbishop Ryan's feet and made the profession of the Catholic faith were Rev. Maurice L. Cowl, Rev. William L. Hayward, and Rev. William H. McClelland, former assistants at St. Elizabeth's Protestant Episcopal Church, in Philadelphia, of which Dr. McGarvey was rector; Rev. Edgar N. Cowan, of Milwaukee and former assistant of St. Mark's Church in Philadelphia, and Rev. Charles E. Bowles and Rev. O. T. W. Grinnell, both of Chicago.

After making their profession of faith all seven were conditionally baptized, so as to leave no doubt as to the validity of their original baptism.

This morning, when Archbishop Ryan celebrated his daily mass in the Cathedral Chapel, the seven former clergymen received their first holy communion at his hands. Following the mass the archbishop administered to them the sacrament of confirmation.

All seven expect to enter the Catholic priesthood, for which some of them will probably study in the Seminary of St. Charles Borromeo, at Overbrook. Two or three, it is said, may become members of Catholic religious orders.

ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Joseph Sudsburger, sixty-five years old, of Washington, was shot and probably fatally injured last night at his home by Walter J. Johnson, a negro, who later shot and killed himself at the foot of Washington Monument while vainly trying to escape a mob that was pursuing him.

Sudsburger for more than thirty years had been stable foreman at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Johnson had been employed as a driver and stable hand at the bureau for about five years.

About two weeks ago Johnson went to the Sudsburger home and told Mrs. Sudsburger, it is said, that her husband had sent him to get $2. When Mrs. Sudsburger started into the house to get the money, it is alleged that Johnson assaulted her. He was arrested and was sent to jail in default of bail.

Yesterday he was liberated on bond signed by a negro physician, and about 8 o'clock went by the Sudsburger home. Sudsburger was sitting on his front porch playing with some of the children of the neighborhood. Johnson walked up to the fence which surrounds the Sudsburger home, and without a word of warning, it is said, fired three shots at Sudsburger. The first shot went through Sudsburger's left wrist and the other two penetrated his abdomen.

Sudsburger was sent to Emergency Hospital, where an operation was performed. The physicians hold out little hope for his recovery.

Mr. John Rhea of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SHOT AT CHURCH FETE.

Henry Nicoll, aged thirty-five years, of Towson, Md., son of Rev. J. W. Nicoll, former pastor of the German Baptist Church, Baltimore, but now engaged in general missionary work, was shot and seriously wounded by J. Vernon Hopkins, son of Jacob S. Hopkins, during the progress of a church fete on the lawn of Towson M. P. Church Tuesday night. The crowd numbering more than 100 women and men, had just gathered and were about to take their seats at the tables, which were set on the porch and lawn, when the shot was fired just in front of the porch steps.

In an instant there was the wildest excitement. A score of women screamed, several almost fainted and most of them made a mad scramble to get away.

Hopkins, who shot himself in the right hand. He, together with his brother, J. Edmund Hopkins, was placed under arrest, but was later released under $1,500 bail for a further hearing. His brother, who is charged with being an accessory to the affair, was released under $1,000 bail. The shooting was the result of a difference about a bill which Hopkins was trying to collect.

DeWitt's Little Early River are small, safe and gentle little pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.
